OUR PARIS CORRESPONDENCE. To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:
PARIS, Tuesday, Sept. 3, 1861. A now brochure on the Italian question has just appeared in Paris under the title of "the Emperor, Roma, and Italy," the sub-tance of which is that the Eternal City is et this moment a second Coblentz, the hot-bed of conspirates wantonly destroying the road bed, bridges, buildings, and every other species of property which may at a future time he new the imperial dynasty itself; and every means of obtaining satisfaction from the Pontifical Government having failed, the French army will be road. obtaining satisfaction from the Pontifical Government having satisfaction from the Pontifical Government having satied, the French army will be speedily withdrawn. France will not permit Austria to take her plete at Rome; the principle of non-intervention will be tigidly muntained, and, before the retirement of the French, the Roman people will be called upon to express their own wishes. Should the vote the favorable to Victor Emmanuel, the imperial sr ny will be relieved by Italian troop, and tha King will publish a proclamati n guaranteeing the independance of the Church. This brochure has made e considerable sensation, from the fact that it was at first attributed to the pen of M. de la Gueroniere. It is now denied, however, that it was written hy that gentlemen. THE MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION. - There was we publish elsewhere this morning. They emson, Informing the councils of the appointment of Major Henry Dant as Provost Marshel of the city. and the action of the two Boards heartily approving the appointment. We furnish also this morning the proclamation of His Honor the Mayor, requesting the propr ators of business houses in the city to closa at four omployed therein an opportunity to perfect themselvas in military tactics. The suggestion is eminantly proper, and we trust our husiness community will comply with the Mayor's request.

COL. JACKSON'S REGIMENT. - We under. Col. Jackson's regiment as soon as completed will be ordered to Washington. This is a singular mistake.

Col. Jackson's regiment, like every other body of men in the service of the Government. will be subject to the orders of the Government; but no cane nian who reflects a moment can suppose the Government will order Kentneky troops ont of Kentucky whilst the enemy is entronched in the heart of the State or maintains a foothold in our borders. The Government has enough for the Kentucky troops of all arms to do nt home, and will prehably have for some time to come. Such at any rate is the confident expectation of Col. Jack-

As respects service beyond the limits o Kentucky, Col. Jackson's regiment, therefore, stands on precisely the same footing with every other body of Kentuckians in the service. One is just as liable as another to be ordered to exterior points; but, in point of fact, none will be so ordered as long at least as the foot of the invader is upon our soil.

ANOTHER REBEL THEFT .- On Saturday night est a party of eacessionists forcibly took a po tion of the muskats belonging to the Home Guard at Brandanburg. Each member of the Guard kept his own gun, and this fact being known to the revolutioniets, a party of them, supposed to be some twenty or thirty in number, want to and demanded the guns. They succeeded in gatting only about seventeen, when the alarm was givan. The remaining members of the company assembled and succeeded in preventing the capthra of any more of tha guns. The "seceders' batook themselves from town as soon as they discovared that the alarm was given and the company were out and made their way with the guns, it is supposed, to Elizabethtown. It is thought that Gen. Bucknar's camp furnished some fifteen man to assist in this ontrage, thus protacting tha soil and citizens of Kenlucky from an "insolent foe!" It is known that some of the men wers from bis camp and wera assisted by others who live ln Meada county.

The facts that have come to our knowledge corclusively show that this foray, exactly similar to saveral others that we have heard of, was bu part and parcel of a regular system of forcible depredation meant to extend throughout the State wherever arms are to be found in the possession of loval men. Thera ara some thousands of by surprise. Surprise, after this, would be dis- sarv. Can you not leave your business and volgrace to them-scarcely better than cowardice.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS From the Evening Bulletin.

Washington, Sept. 22.

From developments made to day I am satisfied that the statement forwarded last night, purporting to come from a man just from Manays-s, concerning the streegth and condition of the rebels, eening the streegth and condition of the rebels, was garbled coming through a third party to-day. I have seen him, and his statement is very clear and continued by numerous other statements made by other reliable parties. His position of late at Richmond, Manassaa, Winchester, Harper's Ferry, Munson's Hill, and Fainfax, at various periods, and bis extensive acquaintance with men and things, have enabled him to judge well of the condition and movement of the rebels. NTITLED THE PARTISAN LEADER. A Novei, by Beverity Incker, of Virginis. Secretly printed by the celebrated Duff Green, at Washington, in the year 1886, for circulation in the Southern States, and among disuniosites, but immediately suppressed by the enemies of the National Union.

This actualisting book, in the garb of a brilliant and fascinating work of fection, was exceetly printed in 1886, with a fictitious imprint, and date of 1875, purportice to be an blatorical novel, detailing the events which bad taken place during the previous twenty years. In it are depicted, with unerriug and prophetic accuracy, the whole of the present disquision conspiracy, narrating the repry events which are this day transpiring throughout the Enited States of America.
